Federal Outreach Leadership Development (FOLD) Program Application Process and Requirements

Applicant Selection: FOLD Participants are selected through a competitive review process by the FOLD Council. For quality purposes, the program is limited to 20 cohort members.

Applicant Requirements:
- Ideal applicants are GS-9 through GS-12 or equivalent (exceptions may be granted).
- Competitive applicants are highly motivated, seeking increased responsibility in the federal government, and possess a desire to improve their leadership skills.
- Must attend the first orientation session in July for a FOLD introduction and team building.
- Must attend the two-day Leadership Foundry Session in August.
- Upon securing agency support, applicants shall submit the complete application packet by Friday, May 15th, 2020.

Requirements for Supporting Agencies:
- Agency must support FOLD participants in attending all of the 11 sessions to graduate from the program.
- Agency must provide FOLD participants time off to attend the FOLD graduation ceremony.
- Agency must pay the tuition fee in full by the deadline of June 15, 2020.
- Agency must provide the Federal Executive Board with feedback about the program.

Program Commitment: The FOLD program consists of 11 sessions tailored to equip candidates to address the unique challenges faced by leaders in federal agencies; participants must commit to attending all sessions. Participants are expected to spend personal (non-work) time on reading and any tasks needed to prepare for program sessions.

Session activities will include: self-assessments, collaborative discussions, continuous improvement tools, change management skills, conflict resolution training, building resilience, public speaking and writing skills workshops, as well as federal, state, local, and military departmental visits. Classroom sessions are augmented by a mentorship program as well as opportunities to network with FOLD program alumni. FOLD Program graduates will be recognized during the Civil Servant of the Year award ceremony in May 2021.

Pre-Application Contract for Federal Executive Board of Minnesota's FOLD Program

I, ____________________________, wish to participate in the Federal Executive Board of Minnesota's FOLD Program. In order to apply for the program I must have the support of my agency and supervisor before continuing to fill out the application packet. I understand that in order to participate in the program I will be away from my normal work duties one day a month (two consecutive days in August) over an 11 month period. I understand that I must be at every session and any emergency absences must be approved by my supervisor and FOLD Chair/Vice-Chair. I understand that if I miss more than two sessions (16 hours) I will not be able to graduate from the program. I will spend personal (non-work) time on reading and other tasks related to the program. I am committed and willing to complete this program while performing other duties required in my job.

The following questions will be used to assess your written communication skills. You may attach one additional page for all three questions if you are not able to answer in the space provided.

1. Given the opportunity to influence a significant change in the federal government, provide an example of an issue you would address. How would you address it? What approach would you take? Who would you work with and why? What resources would you need?

2. Why do you want to be selected for FOLD and what do you hope to gain from participating?

3. What are three qualities that you consider to be inherent in every superior leader? Explain why those qualities are important to effective leadership.
APPLICANT/EMPLOYER AGREEMENT:

APPLICANT COMMITMENT: FOLD is an 11-month program (July-May). Class site-visits and classroom meetings are held once a month [July-April (two consecutive days in August)] from approximately 7:30a.m.-4:30p.m.; the graduation ceremony in May is held during the Civil Servant of the Year Award Ceremony. Participants are expected to attend ALL sessions with any absences (including late arrival and early departure) approved in advance by employee’s supervisor and FOLD Chair/Vice-Chair. Meeting dates to be determined. Registration fees for the Civil Servant event are included in the tuition.

EMPLOYER COMMITMENT: Employer must approve and sign the Employee Agreement that acknowledges the time commitment expected of a program participant.

By signing this agreement, I acknowledge the foregoing conditions for participation in the FEB of Minnesota’s FOLD Program.
